8. [redacted] Met with Mr. Robert Michaels, Staff Assistant, House Defense Appropriations Subcommittee, who indicated that he had talked to Chairman Mahon about our "building" and had left a note for the Chairman to remind him of it. It was also learned in conversation that the Chairman is running a full schedule briefing himself in on Appropriations Committee matters that he has not handled previously, such as the AID bill, and that these matters may well keep the Chairman occupied for the next week or more.

[redacted] has talked to both the Senator and Mr. Goulding and indicated that after filing her application on April 15 with [redacted] that [redacted] had advised her that he could see no reason why she could not be brought on board on 1 June in a non-classified position pending final clearances. After checking, I advised Mr. Goulding that we had written to [redacted] on 1 June advising her that her application was in process. I further advised Mr. Goulding that this process would require an excess of 60 days. Mr. Goulding indicated that he had advised her in similar fashion as a result of previous dealings with this office, but that she was quite insistent. In consequence, he would recommend, if possible, a follow-up letter to [redacted] indicating that contact has been made by Senator Pell's office, and possibly advising her in somewhat more detail than would have been included in the 1 June letter.
